

Luke 13:31-35

At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to him, “Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.”

He said to them, “Go and tell that fox for me, ‘Listen, I am casting out demons
and performing cures today and tomorrow,
and on the third day I finish my work.

Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed outside of Jerusalem.’

Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it,

how often have I desired to gather your children together
as a hen gathers her brood under her wings,
and you were not willing!

See, your house is left to you.

And I tell you, you will not see me

until the time comes when you say,

‘Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.’”
